TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAILWAY

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

The "St. Louis & Southeastern"

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES McCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College street Depot, Nashville, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
RALEIGH, Sept. 23, 1873.

A PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

WHEREAS, Official information has been received at this Department that FRANK MALPASS, late of the county of New Hanover, stands charged with the murder of Edward J. Walker of said county; and that the said Malpass has fled the State, or so conceals himself that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him:

Now, therefore, I, TOD R. CALDWELL, Governor of the State of North Carolina, by virtue of authority in me vested by law, do issue this my Proclamation offering a reward of THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS for the arrest and delivery of the said Frank Malpass to the Sheriff of New Hanover County, in the City of Wilmington, and I do enjoin all officers of the law and all good citizens of the State to aid in bringing said criminal to justice.

Done at our City of Raleigh, on the 23d day of September, A. D., 1873, and L. S. in the ninety-eighth year of American Independence.

TOD R. CALDWELL.

By the Governor.
J. B. NEATHERY, Private Secretary.

DESCRIPTION—Frank Malpass is a native of North Carolina, five feet eight inches high, aged 25 years, sandy hair, smooth face, little or no beard, and small blue eyes.

Virginia Politics.

Less than two weeks will end the arduous campaign in Virginia. Although battling against great odds, the Republicans have no cause to feel that so far, they have neglected any duty. Inch by inch the field has been over, and at every point the Republicans have advanced their banners upon the enemies' works. The fight has been and is exceedingly stubborn; and which party will be able to claim the victory is now very doubtful.

The tactics of the Conservatives—that being the alias under which the opponents of advancement pass in Virginia—are skillful. They have attempted to combine the whites and make it a contest of races; they also try to convince the negroes that the Conservative camp is large enough for all races, colors and creeds. The latest and most remarkable instance of their dexterity consists in asserting the ineligibility of Col. Hughes, the Republican candidate for Governor. The New York Herald which gave such ready circulation to the vile calumny against Dr. Bessel, is the authority for the statement that Col. Hughes, since the adoption of the Virginia Constitution, bore a challenge to a meeting of duelists. The cry is loudly taken up by the Conservative Press of Virginia, and is echoed from the Chesapeake to the Cumberland mountains.

It sounds strangely to hear Virginians condemning a gentleman, and denying his right to hold office because he once was connected with a duel. The period is within the memory of thousands when the decendants of the cavaliers were prompt to vindicate their honor on the field of single combat; and we think that few of the real old stock would now refuse to do so, if sufficient provocation were given.

Be the result what it may, Republicans can assure themselves that the day is past when the political situation of Virginia can carry a great deal of moral strength into the party which controls it.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— It is reported that the Father-General of the Jesuits has transferred the headquarters of the order to Malta.

— The Russian Government has been obliged to order arrests among the Roman Catholic clergy in the diocese of Chelm. A vast politico-religious conspiracy has been discovered among the clergy.

— Saxon-les-Bains, in Switzerland, is now the only recognized gambling place north of the Alps. The "Kursaal" there is kept by an Italian. The place is in the valley of the Rhone, near the Simplon road.

There are in Switzerland 7,000 primary schools superintended by 6,600 masters and mistresses, the disproportion arising from the fact that in some cantons a master has charge of two schools. The scholars number about 400,000. The education of children is obligatory in all the cantons except Geneva and Uri.

— The German Emperor and Prince Bismarck visited the exposition on the 2nd inst. They expressed a particular desire to see the American machinery in motion, and were conducted through the department of the United States, where they examined with interest several of the most curious inventions. As the Emperor approached the French department many of the exhibitors left the premises.

— The trial of Captain Clarke, of the ship Sunrise, for cruelty to seamen, is proceeding before the United States Circuit Court at San Francisco. The testimony for the prosecution, as it stands, shows acts of almost incredible brutality. The crew generally express the belief that the three men who committed suicide were driven to desperation by the cruelty of the Captain and his mates. Peter Johnson, one of the crew, was beaten and abused till he lost his reason, and he is now almost an idiot.

— "The greatest herdsman in the world" is the title claimed for Samuel W. Allen, of Texas, who owns 225,000 cattle. He has one ranche eighty miles long and forty wide, between the Nevada and Colorado rivers, the largest on the continent, which pastures 120,000. Two others accommodate, respectively, 70,000 and 35,000. These cattle all subsist on native grasses of a part of Texas. His herds require the attention of at least 400 herders and branders and the use of 3,000 horses. He brands 60,000 calves every year to keep up the supply. The value of his stock, exclusive of the land, exceeds five million and a half. He is the chief meat purveyor for New Orleans and the neighboring counties on the Gulf coast.

— At the meeting of bank Presidents in New York on the 23rd, Mr. Williams, President of the Metropolitan National bank, submitted a letter he had received from the President, in reply to one he, (Williams,) at the request of a friend, had written to President Grant. The reply to the letter was very brief, and simply stated that for three or four weeks the President would feel disposed, in case of urgent need, to issue weekly three or four millions out of the legal tender reserve. The following resolutions were passed, as the result of the meeting:

Resolved, That the message of the President of the United States to the banks of New York be respctfully and grrtefully acknowledged, and we cordially reciprocate his kind wishes, and will act in the spirit in which he recommends,

Resolved That from and after the 1st of November next the equalization of legal tenders by the banks of this association be discontinued.

A proposition came up to use national bank currency notes in clearing-house settlements. The proposition was not carried.

We give to our readers an exquisite little gem, which though published and republished in every paper in the United States, is ever as welcome as beautiful:

THE VILLAGE SCHOOLMASTER.

BY CHARLES M. DICKENSON,

When the lessons and tasks are all ended,
And the school for the day is dismissed,
And the little ones gather around me
To bid me good night and be kissed;
Oh, the little white arms that encircle
My neck in a tender embrace!
Oh, the smiles that are halos of heaven,
Shedding sunshine of love on my face!

And when they are gone I sit dreaming
Of my childhood too lovely to last;
Of love that my heart will remember,
When it wakes to the pulse of the past.
Ere the world and its wickedness made me
A partner of sorrow and sin,
When the glory of God was about me,
And the glory of gladness within.

All, my heart grows as weak as a woman's,
And the fountains of feeling will flow,
When I think of the paths, step and stony,
Where the feet of the dear ones must go;
Of the mountains of sin hanging o'er them,
Of the tempest of fate blowing wild;
Oh, there's nothing on earth half so holy
As the innocent heart of a child!

They are idols of hearts and of households;
They are angels of God in disguise;
His sunlight still sleeps in their tresses,
His glory still gleams in their eyes.
Oh! those truants from home and from heaven,
They have made me more manly and mild!
And I know how our Saviour could liken
The kingdom of God to a child.

I ask not a life for the dear ones,
All radiant, as others have done,
But that life may have just enough shadow
To temper the glare of the sun;
I would pray God to guard them from evil,
But my prayer would bound back to myself.
Ah! a seraph may pray for a sinner
But a sinner must pray for himself.

The twig is so easily bended,
I have banished the rule and the rod;
I have taught them the goodness of knowledge,
They have taught me the goodness of God;
My heart is a dungeon of darkness,
Where I shut them from breaking a rule;
My frown is sufficient correction;
My love is the law of the school.

I shall leave the old house in the autumn,
To traverse the threshold no more;
Ah! how shall I sigh for the dear ones,
That meet me each morn at the door;
I shall miss the "good nights" and the kisses,
And the gush of their innocent glee,
The group on the green, and the flowers
That are brought every morning to me.

I shall miss them at morn and at evening,
Their song in the school and the street;
I shall miss the low hum of their voices,
And the tread of their delicate feet.
When the lesson and tasks are all ended,
And death says "the school is dismissed!"
May the little ones gather around me,
To bid me good night and be kissed!

— Seventy-eight beeves, 58 hogs, 24 sheep and 14 calves were slaughtered this week for market.

— That portion of the Fraternity who went to Weldon yesterday return many thanks for the kind attentions bestowed upon them. They will go again.

MR. GRIER KIDDER, of this city, who was on the Schr. Ann & Susan when she went down in one of the recent gales, while making a trip from Martinique to Nassau, returned home yesterday and gives quite an interesting account of the loss of the schooner and of the quaint manners and customs of the inhabitants of the West Indies.

OLD PAPERS.—We were shown this morning a copy of the North Carolina Intelligencer and Fayetteville Advertiser printed by Ray & Block, November 8th, 1806, in Fayetteville, N. C., and a copy of the Raleigh Register and North Carolina State Gazette, published in Raleigh, October 8th, 1807. The papers were found by Geo. W. Betts, a well-known carpenter, while he was working on the roof of one of our old buildings.

THE Superior Court adjourned to-day at noon until Monday. The time was occupied all the forenoon in hearing motions. The jury returned a verdict against Tom Conner, who was indicted for keeping a disorderly house. The defendant is proprietor of one of the dance houses in the region known as "Paddy's Hollow." Judgment was suspended on payment of costs, as Mr. Oldham, the prosecutor in this case, said that he was satisfied to have the nuisance abated. This Tom promised to do by shutting up his house. The costs amount to more than one hundred dollars.

CHAIN EM UP."—The dogs in the yard next to this office is a perfect nuisance to the public generally. They have long been a source of annoyance to us but we refrained from complaining about them as we have an aversion to complaining about anything that may be a protection or source of pleasure to any one, and we will simply ask the owner to chain them in order to keep them from jumping on the fence and startling persons as they pass by.

THE Roanoke News gives the following report of the ceremonies at the laying of the corner stone at Weldon yesterday;

"The Masonic Fraternity of this town assisted in their interesting ceremony of laying the corner stone of the Methodist Church yesterday. The ceremony was performed by Bro. Thos. M. Gardiner D.·. G.·. M.·. assisted by several members of the Fraternity from Wilmington, Petersburg, Jackson, Portsmouth and other places and Roanoke Lodge No. 203. The procession was formed at about "high twelve" under the direction of Bro. R. W. Daniel, Grand Marshal pro tem., and moved to the appointed place where a considerable number of ladies and gentlemen were assembled. The exercises were opened with a prayer by the Rev. R. O. Burton after which the Fraternity performed their beautiful and impressive ceremony. In this they were ably assisted by St. John's Lodge Choir, of Wilmington. The occasion will long be remembered among the joyous reunions of the brethren of the Mystic tie. The thanks of the visiting brethren from Wilmington are due to Capt. J. M. Howell, of the W. & W. R. R., and to Mr. P. Heinsberger, of Wilmington, who furnished the organ used on the occason. Lack of space prevents a fuller description, which we would much like to give."

The first shipment of cotton direct from Atlanta, north over the Air Line was to have passed through Greensboro on Wednesday night.

The Sentinel tells us that Dolphus Gudger, under charge of Sheriff Tweed of Madison county, was taken to the Penitentiary a few days ago, in pursuance of a sentence from Judge Henry, of the 11th judicial circuit. Stranger to say, Judge Henry seemed to have forgotten about a law which prohibits the reception of convicts in the Penitentiary who are not sentenced for more than twelve months, and consequently Gudger was not allowed to remain, and he was taken back to the place from which he came, and Madison county will have to pay over two hundred dollars for the Sheriff's mileage and expenses.

Battleboro having been frightened from the cucumber question by the awful yarns of the New Berne papers, now tries to flank them by telling of a fifty pound squash measuring over sixty inches in circumference.

Charles McGrady, col., from Alleghany county, under the escort of Sheriff Wyatt was lodged in the Penitetiary under sentence from Judge Mitchell, convicted of larceny, so we learn from the Sentinel.

The Battleboro' Advance notifies its readers that its next issue will be two weeks hence from its new place of abode, Wilson, N. C. The Advance is one of our most acceptable exchanges, and we wish it every pecuniary success in its new home.

The Kinston Gazette says that one of the incidents of the fire in that place was that of Mr. West's little infant being caught up with a bed on which it was wrapped up, and thrown out at an upper window. The little fellow, though slightly injured, is doing tolerably well.

The Salem Press says the Salem and Greensboro Railroad has been doing a handsome business during the short time it has been in operation, in travel and freight. The transportation of freight on this road has been beyond the expectation of its most sanguine friends.

Says the Tobacco Plant: "Capt. T. B. Lyon has invented a flue for curing tobacco that operates more successfully than anything else of the kind ever known. The best tobacco raisers of Granville acknowledge that the tobacco raised in a mile of Durham and used with this flue is superior to any tobacco in Granville.

The Winston Sentinel says: On last Saturday evening a fine horse belonging to John Wharton, Esq., of Clemmonsville, became frightened about two miles west of town and started to run, and when in full speed ran into a wagon in front of him, and drove the coupling poll into his breast, killing him instantly. The parties in the wagon ran into did some lofty tumbling.

How We Bought.

We had heard of almost every machine,
Which claimed to be "best that ever was seen,"
So we went round one day to examine them all.
And decide which was best for our sewing that fall.

One agent ran much on his noiseless affair.
So quiet you never could know it was there,
And he spun it to show us how gently it whirled—
But it never had made much noise in the world.

One made stitches like magic, but he never showed
You could rip them all out just as fast as it sewed;
Another one talked of his needle alone,
It was all in his eye, and it needlessly shone.

And this had a hobby, and that one a kink,
Which took with those not accustomed to think.
But merit was what we were after, you know—
And we bought the HOWE because it could SEW.

What we claim for the Howe is that it is an honest machine, not subject to fits nor constantly getting out of order; that it will do your work perfectly and give entire satisfaction. Call at the Office on Market Street, near Third, and see if it will not do all we promise for it. It

MISSOURI.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 25.

The citizens of Memphis refugeeing here held a meeting last night, and fourteen committees were appointed to solicit aid. The appeal for aid says: Memphis is almost depopulated out of 65,000 inhabitants, and only about 10,000 remain; of these more than 1,000 are now sick; 2,000 newly made widows and orphans are dependent on charity, and even though the scourge were to cease at once, these helpless people must be assisted during the coming winter.

The relief associations are without funds, and unless substantial aid is furnished the poor and sick must die of neglect, or succumb to hunger and want. Not only money, but clothing, blankets, food and fuel are asked for, that the hundreds of the plague stricken and destitute families may be nourished and kept from starvation.

TAX PAYERS

NOTICE.

THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS of New Hanover county will hold a meeting, commencing Monday October 20th and continuing until Saturday, the 25th inst., both days inclusive, between the hours of 10 A M, and 1 P M, for the purpose of hearing and examining complaints of tax payers upon the matter of assessments of Real Property, in manner and form as set forth in Section 17 of Revenue Act, being entitled "How complaints of excess proceeded with," as follows:

SEC. 17. If any person shall complain before the Commissioners that his property, either real or personal, has been improperly valued, or that he is charged with an excessive tax, he shall present his claim in writing and they shall hear any evidence adduced by him, and shall summmon and examine any witnesses necessary for a just decision of the question. If they decide against the complaint, they shall also give judgment against him for the costs of the investigation; but if the County Commissioners shall find that he has cause for the complaint, they shall direct their clerk to render a true account thereof, and the account thus rendered to the Auditor, who shall credit the Sheriff with the overcharge in his settlement of that year.

Complainants will follow the requirements of the Act in making their complaints, as the Board desire to fully complete the assessments within the time designated.
